

Please don't allow the media ownership rules to be weakened so that the TV and radio and newspapers can be owned by fewer owners. Already the power to cut down on our sources of news is too much concentrated in the hands of the few. We need more smaller companies owning the sources of our news, so we get more different viewpoints. Your new proposed rules are going in the wrong direction.